

Skegness & Ingoldmells – A Ticket to Fun

The wonderful Skegness is the biggest resort on Lincolnshire's fun coast and has been a premier holiday destination for over a hundred years. Ingoldmells is an outstanding resort that combines the best of tradition with the most modern facilities.

It was the excellent sunshine record of Lincolnshire's fun coast that encouraged Billy Butlin to open his first holiday centre at Ingoldmells in 1936.

Altogether a great holiday destination, as there's loads to do for the whole family; a haven of family fun. There's a theme park nearby for teens, a farm the little ones will love and the gorgeous beach and countryside for everyone to enjoy
